

K-LOVE serves as the only music station that my family and the majority of my friends listen to. No other FM Contemporary Christian station is serving the Phoenix metro area. If K-LOVE was replaced by an LPFM in my community the listening needs of many would not be met. K-LOVE is a service in the public interest because it provides family friendly programming so I don't have to worry what my kids hear on the radio.